ASSESSMENT QUESTIONS & FUNDAMENTAL INDICATORS

Key Juvenile Justice System Questions

The Fundamental Measures are built on a framework that focuses on ten core questions for juvenile justice systems to answer.

1. How many youth are involved in various stages of the system?
2. What are the key characteristics of the youth involved?
3. How did the youth become system involved?
4. How did the youth move through the system?
5. Is the system fair?
6. How did the youth change while in the system?
7. Does the system meet the needs of youth and families?
8. What was the experience of youth in the system?
9. How much does it cost?
10. What are the long-term measures of success?

Key Juvenile Justice System Sectors

The juvenile justice system is comprised of several different agencies, each with a distinct role and mission. These agencies may vary in their responsibilities and the degree to which they intersect from state to state, but each one interacts with youth and their families. Many of the Fundamental Measures require information sharing between the distinct agencies.

1. Law Enforcement
2. Detention
3. Court Processing
4. Probation
5. Reentry
6. Community Providers
